Meetings shall, subject to the presence of a quorum, start at the time set out on the notice, and shall, subject to the discretion of the meeting, continue until all business on the agenda is disposed of.

- a) Any member desiring to speak at meetings shall raise their hand and when called upon by the Chair shall address the chair. If two or more members raise their hands simultaneously, the Chair shall call upon the member who first caught the eye of the Chair.
- b) Except in committee, no member other than the person who has proposed a motion or an amendment shall speak to it until it has been seconded. A motion or amendment, lapsing for want of a person to second it, shall not be recorded in the minutes.
- c) A motion or amendment before the chair shall not be withdrawn except by its mover and by leave of the meeting. No motion shall be withdrawn while any amendment is under discussion or after any amendment has been adopted.
- d) If required to do so by the chair, the person who has proposed any motion or amendment shall submit it in writing.

- f) A member moving a motion or amendment shall be deemed to have spoken to it. A member seconding a motion or amendment without speaking to it may reserve the right to speak to it subsequently.
- g) When an amendment is before the chair, discussion shall be confined to that amendment. No further amendment shall be proposed until the amendment has been disposed of.

discretion to accept or refuse the motion. The Chair may also personally put the question if the Chair feels that adequate discussion has taken place. In either case the mover of a motion shall retain the right of reply. If an amendment is before the chair, the closure motion shall be deemed to close the debate on the amendment only.

- m) During discussion of a motion (but not of an amendment), a member who has not already participated in the debate on the motion may move, 'That the question be not now put'. This motion shall be open to debate, and shall be debated together with the original motion. If carried, the original motion shall not be dealt with further. If lost, the original motion shall be put forthwith, subject to the mover's right of reply. The motion may be foreshadowed while an amendment is before the chair, but in no case shall it be put till all amendments have been disposed of.
- n) The Chair should be neutral toward questions arising. If the Chair wishes to move and/or speak to a question, they should stand down and an alternative Chair be appointed until 'the question is put'.
